Subject: Next SRES Meeting, week of 27 April in Washington
Date: Tue, 24 Feb 1998 19:01:16 +0100

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing to let you know that the next IPCC-SRES Full Authors meeting will be held the week of 27 April 1998 (instead the week of 6 April) in Washington, D.C. Bob Watson of the IPCC will attend. The exact dates during that week are not yet fixed, but I expect that we will have a full authors meeting for two days, preceded by a two-day modelers meeting. Please let me know soon--today if possible--whether you will be available during this week; it is critical that we finalize the dates early so there will be sufficient time to ensure funding for our colleagues from developing countries who need IPCC support.

I look forward to hearing from you very soon.

Best regards,

Naki
