Ben, I'm going to be in DC from Wednesday until Tuesday morning, the 23rd. So you and I can hang out and do stuff in DC on Thursday, Friday, and Monday if you like. I'm going to be at CPAC (Conservative Political Action Conference) on Thursday. Ron Paul will be speaking on Thurs. at 8:30pm to a roaring packed crowd of probably 5,000 people (out of 10,000 attending). So I don't want to miss that.

(2:27:12 AM) yohoho@jabber.ccc.de: apparently jamie kelso is a main ron paul organizer

(2:27:18 AM) yohoho@jabber.ccc.de: and chairperson for the a3p

(2:27:58 AM) yohoho@jabber.ccc.de: "My wife and I were delegates for Dr. Ron Paul. We also had a meet up group with about 100 members. We went to several straw- polls and events. We were totally consumed and it was an expensive undertaking, we were all in. We worked with Kent Snyder."

Great work. I hope to see you at the convention. Perhaps I can assist if you plan to get involved again this time around. :) [QUOTE=Benjamin Franklin]I'm very familiar with Ron Paul campaign - as I was involved in 2008 campaign. I'm a PCO - which means you're automatically a delegate to the county convention. I was elected as an alternative delegate to the state convention. Normally, alternatives get seated (eventually), but in 2008, I wasn't seated. I did get seated the next day when an elected delegate had to leave early, and I replaced him. He missed the most exciting part of the convention. Whatcom county (your county??) is very heavily pro Ron Paul and I know some of the important supporters in that area. In 2008, local GOP'ers kinda poo-pooed RP, preferring McCain. But I think this time, they have a healthy respect for RP. Hence he might win more votes this time. vikingcelt :)/[QUOTE]

Hello Alexander, Hey, great posting. Imbar just called me and he likes your stuff too. Imbar is Ron Paul's #2 man in Illinois. Owns his own manufacturing company. Young guy like you. Jeff (Imbar) and I have been buddies for years. We met up with Ron Paul in Ames, Iowa in Aug. 2007. Nice work, Jamie

Hi Brian, I fired off a dozen emails from the neat system that you set up between Hotmail and Fastmail. I'm keeping those screens open continuously, so I can see anything coming in. A couple of my buddies are among those dozen. "Knucklehead" is my buddy and Sr. Mod named Imbar on WhiteNewsNow. He's also Ron Paul's #2 man in Illinois, in Chicago, where he is a manufacturer. His name is Jeff. You'll meet him. He's coming to AmRen to help us distribute A3P materials to the 300 attendees. He's also going to help me get our materials into CPAC (10,000+ attendees) at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel just north of the White House. Another WhiteNewsNow member, RonPaul4pres, also signed up as an A3P Member. His name is Paul Mancini, and he's coming to AmRen to help Jeff and me as well. Paul lives halfway between AmRen and D.C., which is perfect. Oher WhiteNewsNow Mods and Members will be joining us, and joining A3P as they get the word. Thanks for your generous words. You guys are the inspiration. Thanks, Jamie [quote=AuthenticAmerican][quote=Jamie Kelso]Hi again Brian, Yes, I'll connect with Don tomorrow in the AM. And then come back to you with what we come up with out of that conversation. Thanks, Jamie P.S. I'm going to try to get all of the email answered tonight. I'm working back in time, starting with the most recent. I'm having a blast with the email too. [quote=Jamie Kelso]Hello HF, Cool. We had a great meeting in Orange County last night, at which I was asked by the Chairman of the American Third Position party to take on the work of his personal assistant. Bill Johnson is the Chairman, and a good friend. He has been Ron Paul's top man in Southern Calif. for the last 3 years. So this is a big deal, and will really help WNN. Much more to report later.

(2:30:31 AM) leondavidson@jabber.org: these emails leaked would derail so much shit.

Hello WhiteNewsNow Folks, Well, what we thought would take a year has only taken four months. We're within hailing distance of becoming a top 100,000 worldwide website. Thanks to you. The #33,010 U.S. traffic rank you see below is outstanding too. What would it take for us to get from the approximately #150,000 worldwide rank we have now into the top 100,000? Well, here are some ideas. Possibly, if about half of us were to interest one other patriot in participating in the creation of our website, that might do it. I don't want to ask some of the folks who are posting themselves blind to post any more than they already are. But if some of us who haven't posted too much added a few posts, that would help a lot toward breaking into the top 100,000. It really shouldn't be possible to achieve this in the short time that we have been working together. Especially since we have had no outside help, funding, or promotion. What has made it possible are two things: 1) you folks are an extraordinary band, and; 2) a website like this one was badly needed. A fellow Sr. Mod was discussing with me today the unique nature of what we're doing. We're being a BRIDGE, a badly needed bridge. A bridge that was missing. In fact, more specifically, we're being the hardest part of any bridge to engineer...the center span. We're being a bridge between people who ARE welcome to post on a Ron Paul Revolution-type site but AREN'T welcomed at some of our sites...and people who ARE welcome to post at all of our sites but AREN'T welcomed at Ron Paul sites. I made that sound more complicated than it is. Here's another way of painting the picture. Over the last three years I have been all over the country, with a number of your fellow Sr. Mods, at huge Ron Paul-type, Tea Party-type, End the Fed-type patriot rallies that are (no doubt about it) the start of our revolution. And during those same years I've helped organize plenty of our own much smaller events, again with a number of your fellow Sr. Mods, all over our country. We've been part of a too-small (I think) number of folks who have spent lots of times rowing back and forth between these two groups of great White folks...a mainland (so to speak with a huge number of Ron Paul folks all over it) and a WN island (with a much smaller number of us on it). With all that rowing back and forth...the idea has dawned that a bridge might be a good idea. Hence WhiteNewsNow. Well, you've built the bridge. It's sort of a pontoon bridge right now. But you HAVE built a bridge. Well done and... Thanks, Jamie P.S. I've got my tickets for Jared Taylor's 2010 American Renaissance. Your fellow WhiteNewsNow members [b]Imbar[/b], [b]Benjamin Franklin[/b], [b]James[/b], [b]Alexander Hamilton[/b], [b]RonPaul4pres[/b], [b]FL Patriot[/b] are meeting up with some more of us and probably the most effective White activist in the world today, Nick Griffin. If you aren't able to make it yourself, we'll give you the best first-hand reporting that we can. Including live reporting on our daily radio shows on Voice of Reason Radio from 7-9pm Eastern time Monday through Friday. Also more late-night radio reporting. Are you enjoying the new series of our Parks and Nature banners? These all have the theme: "This belongs to our descendants." These were inspired by Sr. Mod April Gaede and the astounding Nature that she and her patriot family live in in Montana. April's family loves to ski, as you can see from the photo of one of her kinsmen doing a great side drop below. Please send me any suggestions you come up with. I can crank out the art.
