

Marilyn Gudsruk Transcript.

"I heard, ah, (th-like) two little boys screaming down the sidewalk,
running and one telling the other one to stop.
They were running across the front of the the firehouse,
and a black car had pulled up to the firehouse, and the little boys were running and screaming, one of them, on a skateboard.
And then I saw the police department go up, like seven or eight police cars, in, within 45 seconds, I heard a bunch of sh- , ah like shots go off.
And, ah the little boys were running, and - then a gentleman come up the road looking for his two little boys, so I don't know if they found them. I hope they did. But, em, they were scared to death.
So, they, they must have gotten out of the school, and took off. And ran down the sidewalk, 'cause they were screaming out on the sidewalk. And uh, from there, all this all the police started coming.
And that's about it - that I - all this has been going on since."

Thanks to "The Patch" for interview video.