RULES

I

The name of the Society shall be The Pilgrims.

II

The object of the Society shall be the promotion of Anglo-American good-fellowship.

III

The Officers shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, and Honorary Treasurer, who, together with twenty-four other members, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Society (hereinafter called "the Committee"). The said Officers shall be elected annually.

The Committee shall appoint from one of its members an Honorary Secretary, who shall be unpaid. The Committee may also appoint from one of the members of the Society an Assistant Honorary Secretary, who shall be unpaid and who shall not be a member of the Executive Committee.

IV

The Society shall be composed of members of British and American nationality, and those prominent in public or social life, science, art or literature, who shall be elected by the Committee. The membership shall be limited to 750, but this number may be varied at any time by the Committee.

V

Candidates must be proposed by one member and seconded by another, both of whom shall inform the Committee in writing as to the eligibility of the candidate they nominate. The candidate's full name and occupation shall be entered in a form to be provided for the purpose, which shall be signed by the proposer and seconder, or by their authority.

The names of the American candidates may be referred to the New York Committee for their approval.

The election for membership shall be by the Committee, and shall take place at such times as the Committee shall think fit.

The election shall be by vote or by ballot; one negative vote or one black ball in five shall exclude. If twice rejected, a candidate cannot be again put up for election without the unanimous consent of the Committee.

The Honorary Secretary shall forward to every member of the Committee a list of the candidates, with the names of the proposers and seconders, at least one week before the candidates' names come before the Committee for election.

The Honorary Secretary shall notify each new member of his election, and furnish him with a copy of the Rules.

Anyone whom the Committee consider worthy of the honour may be elected an honorary member of the Society.

VI

A majority of the Committee may at any time cancel the membership and refuse to receive the subscription of any member; and such ex-member shall not have the right to make any appeal whatsoever, nor to demand the reason for such cancellation, but his entrance fee and subscription for the current year shall be returned to him.

Any member becoming bankrupt or com-
