The object of the Society shall be the promotion of Anglo-American good-fellowship.

III

The Officers shall be a President, Vice-Presidents and Honorary Treasurer, who, together with twenty-four other members, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Society (hereinafter called "the Committee"). The said Officers shall be elected annually.

The Committee shall appoint from one of its members an Honorary Secretary who shall be unpaid. The Committee may also appoint from one of the members of the Society an Assistant Honorary Secretary who shall be unpaid and who shall not be a member of the Committee.

IV

The Society shall be composed of members of British or American nationality prominent in public or social life, science, art or literature who shall be elected by the Committee. The membership shall be limited to 850, but this number may be varied at any time by the Committee.

V

Candidates must be proposed by one member, seconded by another and be personally known to both members who shall inform the Committee in writing as to the eligibility of the candidate and state the candidate's interest and involvement in Anglo-American relations. The candidate's full name and occupation shall be entered in a form to be provided for the purpose, which shall be signed by the proposer and seconder.

The names of the American candidates may be referred to the American Committee for their approval.

The election for membership shall be by the Committee and shall take place at such times as the Committee shall think fit.

The election shall be by vote or by ballot; one negative vote or one black ball in five shall exclude. If twice rejected a candidate cannot be again put up for election without the unanimous consent of the Committee.

The Honorary Secretary shall forward to every member of the Committee a list of the candidates with the names of the proposers and seconders at least one week before the candidates' names come before the Committee for election.

The Honorary Secretary shall notify each new member of his election and furnish him with a copy of the Rules.

Anyone whom the Committee considers worthy of the honour may be elected an honorary member of the Society.

VI

A majority of the Committee may at any time cancel the membership and refuse to receive the subscription of any member; such ex-member shall not have the right to make any appeal whatsoever or to demand the reason for such cancellation, but his entrance fee and subscription for the current year shall be returned to him.
