In this article, I explore:

- The increase in vaccine-related deaths and the blind spot in the Wellness Community
- The Hyperdimensional Matrix Control System and its influence on human perception and behavior

- The spiritual consequences of the COVID vaccine and how it affects the soul, spirit, and life after death
- The rise of “spirits of transhumanism” operating through the vaccines
- How these beings seek to sever the human connection to soul and spirit
- The phenomenon of earthbound spirits and vaccine-related “exarnation jam”
- The dangers of denial, fear-based distortion, and the black-pill mindset
- Why psycho-spiritual inner work and trauma healing are essential for these times
- The deeper esoteric context and teaching function of spiritual warfare

NOTE: Although this article is a summary of a much larger topic, it's still a long-form read. Some subjects can't be condensed into a 500-word listicle or TL;DR without becoming shallow or distorted, which often leads to misconceptions.

I know attention spans are collapsing, but I'm not adjusting to the dumbing down of society. This is a 6,800-word article for those who can still focus and are willing to look behind the veil.

Sudden Deaths and the Blind Spot in the Wellness Community

It's sad to see more and more people die suddenly from fast-acting cancers, blood clots, heart conditions, or just in their sleep.

I know of at least a dozen people who died shortly after getting the COVID vaccine or got very sick with heart problems, blood clots, nervous system issues, mental and memory problems, and even fast-acting cancer, from zero to stage four within a couple of weeks.

Some of them died over the past year.

Some of them I knew personally back in LA. They were young guys too, in their 40s and 50s, some leaving behind little children.

All of them took the COVID jab, even multiple doses, some even proudly so, posting a picture on social media during the height of the "pandemic."

Turbo cancers and heart failures are directly related to the jab, as more data has shown.

As I forewarned back in 2021, there will be millions of COVID vaxx-related deaths over the next decade.

I doubt that their families will make the connection. The denial is too strong.

They didn't know better but acted in fear and good faith, under an MK-Ultra level of mind programming and media brainwashing, believing they were doing the right thing.

The Litmus Test of Embodiment and Somatic Intelligence

I wrote the little piece below four years ago. While I can understand why regular folks fell for the vaccine, it's still fascinating to me why so many "health-conscious" and "spiritual" people fell for the pandemic and the jab.

Maybe some of them have realized the deception by now, but it requires a huge dose of humility and introspection. If they took the jab, it may be even harder to admit it to themselves.

The Schism In The Wellness And Alternative Health Community (from 2021)

There is a very obvious schism and "splitting" within the wellness, yoga, alternative health, and bodywork/energy healer community regarding the vaccine.

Many practitioners and therapists fully support the vaccine, believe the propaganda and lies around the so-called "pandemic" and corrupted modern allopathic medicine, and have even taken it themselves.

As a longtime professional bodyworker, yoga practitioner, and embodiment coach, I've been surprised and shocked by how many people in the wellness and alternative health community went along with it, received the jab, and even asked their clients and students to take it. Otherwise, they would not offer their services.

In my view and inner experience, if you are genuinely in tune with your body and essence/soul—i.e., embodied in the true sense—you will naturally reject the COVID jab, just as you would reject any other poison or toxin.

You would care for your health on all levels: physical, emotional, psychological, and spiritual.

Then you would also hold the somatic intelligence and intuitive capabilities to see through the lies of this faux pandemic.

Intelligence in that sense has nothing to do with degrees or education, which more often than not clouds real intelligence through social and educational programming, giving only a sense of intellectual superiority.

True intelligence is tied to the body's knowing as an expression of essence, connected to the Divine and your true Self. But it also requires inner work to access that real part of ourselves.

In Light of This Understanding, Here's a Big Oxymoron:

Yoga teachers, spiritual leaders, somatic and embodiment therapists, healers, energy workers, bodyworkers, massage therapists, naturopaths, nutritionists, and anyone in the "wellness industry", taking and promoting the jab.

It couldn't be more of a testimony to being out of touch with their body, spirit, and essence/soul.

This "pandemic" and how people have reacted to it revealed a lot within the spiritual, yoga, and wellness communities.

It has been the ultimate litmus test for anyone who claims to have embodied self-awareness.

Years from now, people will see what they've done, and the truth will continue to reveal itself, as it already is. And it's not going to be a pretty picture.

That was four years ago.

Let's go deeper.

The Hyperdimensional Matrix and the Illusion of Autonomy

Before diving into the spiritual consequences of the COVID vaccine, it's important to establish the framework and context of the non-physical forces and beings that influence us, particularly for those who are unaware of their existence.

I've written for over 20 years about the 'Hyperdimensional Matrix Control System' on my main website, veilofreality.com.

This refers to the non-physical occult hostile forces and their mechanisms designed to manipulate us and keep us spiritually asleep.

To summarize this in a very brief nutshell:

The sense of having an independent identity and separate persona, impenetrable and isolated from everything else, is the greatest illusion and spell we've fallen under.

We assume that each person exists in a private "mind bubble," that we generate our own thoughts, and that these thoughts are the result of electrical signals in the brain.

In truth, the mind is porous and permeable. We are transducers of cosmic, universal, and environmental forces.

We are constantly influenced by conscious non-physical beings from both higher and lower astral realms, by nature spirits and elementals, by the forces of nature itself, by collective suggestions, and by the thoughts, emotions, and energies of other human beings.

What flows through us is a mix of hidden influences; some from occult hostile entities, others from divine inspirations and higher guidance.

Everyone receives impressions and thought-forms from across the spectrum, ranging from the lower astral realms of ignorance and desire to the higher realms of truth.

Most people mistake these impressions as their own thoughts, impulses, or desires.

All esoteric traditions point out that what we commonly call personal freedom is actually a form of hidden slavery.

We believe we are acting from free will, but in most cases, we are being moved by unseen forces and entities. These universal forces play through us, and we unconsciously give them a personal shape and narrative.

Most people simply go along with whatever force is moving through them, believing it is their own doing.

From an esoteric perspective, true freedom begins with recognizing the forces that influence and move through us. It comes from discerning the higher from the lower and refusing to let the lower govern our actions and choices.

This kind of freedom can only be found by aligning with and living from the Divine within. Only then can we become our true selves and live an authentic, conscious life.

In essence, it is about soul embodiment, bringing forth the true Self and living from our essence as a transducer of Divine Will.

It entails sincere psycho-spiritual inner work.

As long as we have failed to establish this freedom within, any outer fight for "freedom" is limited and illusory.

“We live in the midst of invisible forces whose effects alone we perceive. We move among invisible forms whose actions we very often do not perceive at all, though we may be profoundly affected by them.

We need to realize that human consciousness is not a closed vessel. Cosmic forces circulate through it all the time, like seawater through a living sponge.

Whatever emotional state may arise within us is reinforced from the outside. The subjective self only has the kindling; the Cosmos supplies the fuel. Once the fire is started, the cosmic forces of the appropriate type will stoke it.”

– Dion Fortune, Psychic Self-Defense

The Real War Is Through Us

On an occult level, the spiritual war acts through us. It operates via nonphysical forces and beings that influence not just individuals, but humanity as a whole.

For most, this concept is difficult to grasp. It challenges deeply conditioned beliefs and a worldview rooted in hardened materialism. As a result, it's often dismissed as science fiction, psychological projection, or conspiracy theory.

Yet all ancient mystery schools and esoteric traditions, many suppressed or distorted over time, have pointed to this reality in different ways.

Those with eyes to see described these unseen forces directly or through symbols and language suited to their time:

The General Law (Esoteric Christianity), Archons (Gnostics), Lords of Destiny (Hermeticism), The Evil Magician (Gurdjieff), the Shaitans (Sufism), the Jinn (Arabian mythology), Wetiko (Native American spirituality), Occult Hostile Forces, Asuras, Rakshasas, Pisachas (Sri Aurobindo, Integral Yoga), and the Ahrimanic, Luciferic, and Soratic Spirits of Darkness (Rudolf Steiner), among others.

“There are occult [non-physical] forces that are attached in their root-nature to ignorance, to darkness of consciousness, to misuse of force, to perversity of delight, to all the causes and consequences of the things that we call evil.

These powers, beings, or forces are active to impose their adverse constructions upon terrestrial creatures. Eager to maintain their reign, they oppose the increase of light and truth and are antagonistic to the soul’s progress toward divine consciousness.

The tradition of the conflict between the Powers of Light and Darkness, Good and Evil, is universal in ancient myth and in religion, and common to all systems of occult knowledge

The first source of good and evil would be supraphysical [hyperdimensional.]

When we go back deeply into ourselves, we find that mind, heart, and sensation are moved by forces not under our own control. We can become instruments in the hands of Energies of a cosmic energies without knowing their origin.

By stepping back into his inner being and subliminal consciousness, man becomes aware of these interventions, of suggestions and impulses disguised as original movements of his own mind.

Man is the living ground of a vast debate between a darkness of Ignorance out of which it emerges here and a light of Knowledge which is growing upwards towards an unforeseen culmination.

The Forces which seek to move him—whether good or evil—belong not only to this world but to planes of Life and Mind beyond it. They may influence his impulses or possess his whole nature.

Especially the evil takes forms which shock the sense of human measure, exceed the bounds of human personality, approach the gigantic, the inordinate, the immeasurable.”

- Sri Aurobindo, The Life Divine

Many still reject the idea of spiritual beings in non-physical realms. The two most common objections are that there is no proof they exist, or that they're merely primitive myths or psychological projections from the unconscious.

I've explored and addressed these arguments extensively over the past two decades through both research and direct experience.

For those new to my work, I've written over 70 articles, produced videos, and hosted multiple podcast episodes delving into these themes from multiple angles.

The Endgame: Soul Displacement, Body-Snatching, and Possession

From a wider perspective, the ultimate goal of the hyperdimensional matrix agenda, which has been building for thousands of years, is the complete takeover of the human body by anti-divine occult forces.

This involves priming and altering the human form to serve as a vessel for incarnational access. In essence, it is about dislodging the soul from the body to enable full-scale possession.

Rudolf Steiner warned of this in his description of the 8th Sphere, an artificial astral realm sustained by Ahrimanic and Luciferic forces, created to trap the soul in a counterfeit reality and block its ascent into higher spiritual planes.

This is the real "alien invasion" through the body, turning humanity into hollow vessels prepared for hyperdimensional occupation.

The spiritual war acts through us and always has.

And this is also why the solution is within.

Soul embodiment through the Great Work and the discovery of the Kingdom within, our true Divine essence, is the path forward. That essence cannot be harmed.

The more the soul is anchored in the body, the more we bring forth essence, dismantle the false self, and connect to the Divine. The less any adverse force can reach us or influence us.

This is a vast and far-reaching topic that will be extremely difficult for anyone trapped in a purely materialistic or biological view of life to even begin to consider.

On the other side of the coin, many people have become aware of entity interference, possession, and the hyperdimensional matrix.

But without nuance or sincere psycho-spiritual inner work, some fall into black-pill territory, paranoia, blame, and victim consciousness.

This often shows up as seeing entities everywhere and blaming them for everything, to the point of claiming that "Earth is a prison planet" or that "reincarnation is a soul-recycling trap."

The Teaching Function of Evil

Evil and the hostile forces serve a teaching function in the context of the evolution of consciousness, as all esoteric teachings mentioned above emphasized.

"There is always a spiritual test before being able to attain the next stage of power. Each time you have to make progress, you have to undergo an examination.

When Divine manifestations take place, they also have to pass through great difficulties and sufferings as a result of the opposition of dark and anti-divine forces that have had a hold upon earth since the creation.

Those dark powers always oppose the new Lights because they do not want to give up their grip on the earth....

Hostile forces are tolerated in the world only because they put man's sincerity to the test. The day that man becomes integrally sincere, they will pass away, for there will no longer be any reason for their existence."

- The Mother Mirra Alfassa

**Sincerity in that context is about sincerely engaging in psycho-spiritual work, aspiring and surrendering to the Divine, not lying to oneself, and transmuting the lower nature to spiritualize the whole being, living from the true Self and not identified with the [false] ego-personality.*

The Spiritual Consequences of the COVID Vaccine on the Soul, Spirit, and Life after Death

When the “plandemic” started, I saw through the hoax right away.

I wrote my first article about it in February 2020, titled “Corona Fear Virus and the Forces of Illness,” followed by “The Metaphysical Consequences of the COVID Jab in Light of the Occult Matrix and The Way Out” in 2021.

In both articles, I explored the deeper spiritual and metaphysical consequences of the COVID vaccines and how they relate to entity possession and the larger “end game” of the occult forces behind the hyperdimensional matrix.

In 2022, I came across a German book by Thomas Mayer titled “Corona-Impfungen aus spiritueller Sicht: Auswirkung auf Seele und Geist und das nachtodliche Leben,” which translates to “Corona Vaccines from the Spiritual Perspective: Consequences on Soul and Spirit and Life After Death” [now available in English]

The book is deeply revealing, confirming, disturbing, and hopeful at the same time.

Mayer’s findings verified many of the insights I had written about over the years regarding the adverse spiritual and metaphysical consequences of the COVID vaccine, as well as other allopathic medical treatments.

He also confirmed the broader occult agenda I’ve alluded to for a long time: to lock humanity into a frequency prison, dislodge souls from the body, and prime human beings as incarnational vessels for non-physical, hyperdimensional entities to enter and possess.

These hostile occult forces have been working toward this goal for thousands of years.

During this Time of Transition, they are accelerating their agenda in an effort to capture as many bodies and souls as possible.

Mayer's research is grounded in Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy. His observations on how the vaccine affects the astral and etheric bodies, the soul, and the afterlife are based on Steiner's cosmology and his understanding of supersensible realms.

Mayer has been a teacher of anthroposophical meditation for over 30 years and has developed extrasensory perception. Since the 1990s, he has also worked with the spirits of the deceased to assist them in their transition.

Based on Mayer's powerful and detailed work, I wrote two extensive articles that summarize his findings while weaving in my own insights, other research, and additional sources:

- COVID Vaccines – Consequences For The Soul, Spirit, And Life After Death
- mRNA Vaccines, Transhumanism, And The Battle For Our Souls

Thomas Mayer has also been on our podcast twice, where he shared more about his research and insights:

- COVID Vaccines From A Spiritual Perspective – Thomas Mayer | TCM #108
- Vaccine Entities & Earthbound Spirits: The Spiritual Battle for Humanity w/ Thomas Mayer | TCM #150

The Bigger Picture

It's essential to understand the broader context.

What has unfolded over the past five years did not come out of nowhere. Nor is it just about “evil Fauci,” Big Pharma, or any particular person, politician, or institution, as many like to believe, caught in a very narrow tunnel vision.

This extends far beyond the physical world, reaching back through lifetimes and epochs to reflect karmic lessons that span all the way to Atlantis and Ancient Egypt.

In this article, I want to summarize the key insights on the spiritual consequences of the COVID-19 vaccine and how they connect directly to the agenda of Transhumanism.

A Disclaimer about “Fear” and “Doom & Gloom”

The following material may come across as dark or disturbing.

I’ve been accused of fear-mongering, but those claims usually come from people who haven’t read the full articles or Mayer’s work and resort to straw man arguments

Yes, we must stay grounded and avoid paranoia or doom spirals. Mayer emphasized this, too. But there’s a growing trend in the “truth” and “conspiracy” spaces toward exaggerated fear, shadow projection, and black-pill thinking.

This kind of information is easily misunderstood by those without a strong psychological or spiritual foundation. Many self-proclaimed “awake” individuals are stuck in fear and unprocessed trauma, shadow-projecting it outward instead of doing the inner work.

However, we can’t understand the solution unless we’re willing to face the problem.

As discussed earlier, even evil serves a function in awakening.

The COVID vaccine was taken by billions of well-meaning but fear-driven and mind-controlled people. Many truly believed they were doing good and even pressured others to comply.

As of mid-2024, the most recent validated global data shows that approximately 5.6 billion people worldwide have received at least one dose of a COVID-19 vaccine.

Around 5.4 billion have completed the full primary series (typically two doses), with a total of 13.53 billion doses administered globally.

This means roughly 70% of the world's population received at least one dose, and about 67% completed the initial series with two doses.

In the United States, 77.5% of the population received at least one dose, with 67% completing the full two-dose series. In Europe, vaccination rates are generally higher. Portugal leads with approximately 92% of its population vaccinated.

This data doesn't include boosters (more than two doses.)

However, as Mayer wrote, the vaccine affects everyone differently. So we cannot make blanket statements or generalizations.

Many factors influence how someone is affected: how many doses or boosters they received, the strength of each dose, their soul development over lifetimes, their level of spiritual maturity, their karma, and many other elements beyond what the rational mind can comprehend.

"It is important for me to emphasize that this is not about ideology, but about empirical perception and truth-seeking. Science and spiritual research are always an open process of the search for truth. It must not be driven by personal preferences.

The aim is not to stimulate negative emotions, but to present research results in a sober and comprehensible way and to point out ways out of the impasse.

But our way out can only be found through understanding. That is why there is no way around taking a detailed look at vaccines and their effects, even if the results are unpleasant.

It is not about a “harmless jab”, but about a powerful impulse to initiate a change in the human body, so that it is damaged in its basic evolutionary function as the vehicle for the soul-spiritual being of Man.”

- Thomas Mayer

Thomas Mayer's Research

The physical effects and what people call “vaccine injuries,” including the spike protein, are symptoms of non-physical processes that affect the energy body, the soul, and the spirit, which then manifest as physical issues, including, in some cases, the death of the body.

However, the more detrimental effects are in the afterlife and the soul itself, which gets dislodged from the body. The vaccines also contain “vaccine beings,” entities that attach to the human being.

Mayer's journey into this research began in 2021 after encountering, in a meditative group setting, the soul of a woman who died shortly after she received the COVID vaccine.

Her etheric body appeared stiff, unable to expand into the spiritual realms. She was trapped in the afterlife in a state of shock and suffering.

This unexpected discovery prompted Mayer to investigate further. He networked with more than 50 clairvoyants and energy healers, many of whom independently described similar symptoms among the vaccinated.

According to Mayer, the vaccine not only affects the physical body. It disrupts the integrity between the physical and subtle bodies, particularly the etheric, astral, and the “I” or higher self.

This fragmentation weakens the life forces, severs spiritual connection of the soul, and often leads to a sense of inner emptiness. Sensitive individuals may find themselves unable to feel their own center, their higher guidance, or a connection to a Divine presence. It feels like becoming “spiritually empty.”

“People will be inoculated against their disposition towards spiritual ideas. The materialistic physicians will be entrusted with the task of expelling the souls from mankind”.

– Rudolf Steiner, 1917

The Vaccine Being and Soratic Entities

Central to Mayer’s findings is the presence of a distinct spiritual entity linked to the vaccine, which he calls the “vaccine being.”

This being embeds itself into the organs and energetic structures of the person, pushing aside the guiding angel and disrupting the higher self’s influence. It acts as an invasive spiritual parasite, creating internal fragmentation and blocking the soul’s evolution.

More alarming is Mayer’s observation of soratic beings attached to the vaccine.

Soratic beings, according to Steiner, are not part of the evolutionary hierarchy of our solar system. They come from outside the planetary order and are connected to black magic, abuse, war, and a soulless technological drive.

Mayer and his colleagues have perceived these beings in both vaccine ampules and the energy fields of vaccinated individuals.

He refers to them as “transhumanist soratic spirits” due to their alignment with the Transhumanist agenda of “inspiring” humans to uncritically embrace technological augmentation and merge with machines, resulting in disconnected, machine-like, soulless humans.

These beings differ from Luciferic or Ahrimanic forces. Their influence is meant to sever the soul entirely from Divine origin.

What follows is one of Mayer's most detailed and unsettling accounts of what he and others encountered in the subtle realms:

"It took us many attempts before we came to understand the powerful effects of BioNTech/Pfizer, Moderna, AstraZeneca, and Johnson&Johnson.

What emerged as the most significant factor – spiritually speaking – is that at the core, these vaccines are filled with soratic beings. Of course, all other groups of adversarial spirits are also involved.

At first glance, one can experience ahrimanic beings, perhaps also asuric beings. However, on the inside, the soratic beings are at work, setting the tone.

These beings do not originate from the development of our solar system and, in this respect, need to be regarded as "extra-planetary spirits".

Unlike the luciferic and ahrimanic fallen angelic beings, they are not part of the development of our spiritual planetary system, as described in detail in Rudolf Steiner's "Occult Science."

Through unconscious human attraction or conscious invitation, they gain access to, and can thus influence, our lives on earth.

The existence of soratic beings has been known for thousands of years; they inspire oppression, abuse, hatred, war, and black magic, among other things.

However, a new kind is also emerging today. Within my research network, some individuals are skilled in perceiving soratic beings.

Yet this new species was at first incomprehensible to us, and we were unable to classify it. Moreover, no established terminology exists for this species. We have designed the term "Spirits of Transhumanism" because these beings seem to constitute the spiritual core of transhumanism.

Transhumanism seeks to merge human beings with machines and thereby abolish their soul-spiritual existence.

Supersensibly, the spirits of transhumanism do exactly that.

These spirits reach for the human being, and if they gain access, human beings lose – either partially or completely – their spiritual connection. For this purpose, these beings occupy especially the phantom body (physical spirit body) and the etheric body.

They “glue” them together and shut them off from soul and spirit and the soul-spiritual surroundings. In this respect, these beings want to turn humans into automatons, cut off from the spirit.

We found that all group spirits of the four vaccines we examined are occupied by “spirits of transhumanism”. Accordingly, they were identified in the individual ampoules, through which they gain access to the human being via vaccination.

In spiritual experience, they appear as “devoid of the ‘I’, metallic” and “brutally threatening”.

A colleague encountered a leading group spirit of one of the vaccines. Its intention came clearly to light:

“I saw a high spirit being of the vaccine, a narrow, rugged, sinister figure, extremely evil, with a will to annihilate everything human: The angel is as if erased, the etheric as if pulverized, the soul subjugated, the individual Self extinguished. What remains are people devoid of ‘I’, empty shells, robotic humans; scrawny, rickety, metallic; they are as if held like puppets on a long string.”

Observable Consequences

Mayer’s spiritual insights are supported by findings from the healing and scientific communities around the world.

Several peer-reviewed studies show increased rates of depression, anxiety, insomnia, and cognitive decline among vaccinated populations. Other studies suggest heightened risks for Alzheimer's disease and dissociative conditions.

These are the physical manifestations of a deeper spiritual intrusion.

Craniosacral therapists have noted a lack of the cranial rhythm (also called the "pulse of life") in vaccinated clients. One practitioner described the sensation of holding an "empty head," with a shriveled pineal gland and a dried-out etheric brain.

Blood microscopy reveals coagulated blood, loss of aura, and etheric collapse. In some cases, unvaccinated individuals showed these same abnormalities simply from being in prolonged contact with the vaccinated.

Spiritual Shedding and Energetic Contagion

Another significant finding is what Mayer calls spiritual or energetic shedding.

Unvaccinated individuals may absorb the energetic imprint of the vaccine and the vaccine entity through proximity alone. In one instance, a man who had not received the vaccine fell into depression for six months.

Mayer discovered that the soratic spirits of the vaccine were embedded in his aura. He took it on when he was around a group of vaccinated people for a prolonged time. Once removed, the depression vanished.

This shedding is not primarily a physical phenomenon. It occurs because we live in a collective energy field.

However, as Mayer emphasized, the solution is not fear, paranoia, or isolating yourself from vaccinated individuals. The real protection comes from strengthening spiritual integrity through inner psycho-spiritual work, soul embodiment, and alignment with the Divine.

Ironically, fear and paranoia generate emotional frequencies that attract hostile forces and open entry points in the aura.

After Death: Earthbound Spirits and Spiritual Blockage

The vaccine's damage does not stop with physical death. Mayer reports that the etheric and phantom bodies, which persist after death, are often left injured or fragmented.

Many vaccinated individuals are unable to transition into the spiritual world. Instead, they remain earthbound in a confused state.

These earthbound souls may then attach to the aura of living humans (especially close relatives), creating additional burdens and disturbances.

In one case, a spiritually aware man died shortly after vaccination and was found by Mayer's group in a state of despair, completely cut off from spiritual light.

Only after being shown the source of his condition, the vaccine, and the soratic beings, did he recover his "I" and reconnect with his higher guidance. This type of healing is possible, but often requires direct spiritual intervention from the living.

The Afterlife Experience

This ties into a bigger topic. Death doesn't always automatically free the soul, but it can get stuck earthbound for various causes, not just the vaccine.

An Earthbound Spirit (EB) is the surviving consciousness of a deceased human - a disembodied human soul that has failed to complete the transition to the spiritual realm after physical death and remains attached to the Earth plane, often unaware of their death, emotionally entangled, or spiritually confused.

According to Mayer, who has worked with the deceased for over thirty years, we have an "exarnation jam" crisis, a significant blockage in the normal process of exarnation (the soul's departure from the physical body after death)

According to him, about half of the deceased today are earthbound and do not enter the spiritual realms after death.

That's one in every two humans.

He emphasized that this phenomenon is unprecedented in its scale and that even in hospital settings, clairvoyants can now perceive numerous increases of earthbound souls hovering around vaccinated deceased individuals.

This "traffic jam" of earthbound spirits is not only a crisis for the dead but also affects the psychic atmosphere of the living world.

Mayer made another disturbing discovery. In some cases, the trapped earthbound spirit of a deceased vaccinated person becomes prey on which adversary hostile forces were feeding off, i.e., sucking the life force out of them.

Most often, other earthbound spirits become conduits of powerful adversary negative forces, as described in this case:

"...During the spiritual intervention, I concentrated first on the soratic-transhumanism spirits in her etheric body. But this was not enough, there were other dark inclusions connected with a group of deceased, who were in a miserable state and had connected themselves with the highest adversarial spirits.

These sucked power from the earthbound woman. Only after the possession by this group of the dead was removed, was the spiritual intervention felt to be bringing effects.

This sucking out is not surprising; the enslavement of the deceased exists for eons in many variations and was often also brought about consciously.

In this case, the vile group of dead souls simply used the "good opportunity" and took advantage of the defenseless woman to help themselves to her powers.

The deceased, who are enwrapped by their angel, cannot be possessed, but this angel protection was prevented by the COVID-19 vaccine inoculation.

How often does it happen that earthbound vaccinated dead are used as feeding trough by spiritual predators?

I am afraid, very often, because in the spiritual world there are innumerable miserable dead, who have no connection to the higher spiritual world and who therefore resort to feeding themselves from the powers of other dead.”

- Thomas Mayer

Keep in mind that the opposing occult hostile forces feed on certain frequencies, the lower nature, the life force, and the projected emotional loosh of human beings, which is the primary “modus operandi” of the dark forces that have enslaved humanity and the ultimate “purpose” of the hyperdimensional matrix.

The most powerful and effective protection comes through the Great Work, the spiritualization of your being through sincere psycho-spiritual practice.

The more you live from essence and embody your soul, the less access adverse forces have to you. You remain more conscious after death, and the soul knows where to go, guided toward the higher spiritual realms.

Connecting to and bringing forth your essence, your soul-being, your true Self, not the ego-personality, is the most important work of our time.

Soul embodiment is the Great Work.

Reasons for Human Souls Getting Stuck Earthbound

Beyond the effects of the COVID vaccine, which can keep humans earthbound, here is a brief overview of the most common reasons spirits get stuck in the afterlife. These factors also help explain the growing “excarnation jam” and the rise in earthbound spirits.

This is especially prevalent in our age of hardened materialism, where most people are disconnected from Spirit, oriented toward the external world, and lacking a conscious inner life. Few genuinely aspire to their higher nature.

This outward focus is further amplified by the rise of technology in the emerging era of AI and Transhumanism. Influenced by occult adverse forces, these trends serve to deepen materialism and can contribute to keeping the soul earthbound after death.

1. Sudden or Traumatic Death

Death by accident, war, overdose, or surgery can disorient the soul, leaving it unaware that death occurred.

2. Suicide

The soul remains trapped in the unresolved emotional state or thought-loop that led to suicide.

3. Addictions

Cravings for alcohol, drugs, sex, or other compulsions persist after death, binding the spirit to the physical realm.

4. Pharmaceutical and Psychiatric Drugs

Strong medications numb or suppress emotional and spiritual faculties, disrupt the etheric body, and block the natural separation of soul and body at death.

5. Unfinished Business or Emotional Attachments

Strong ties to people, promises, or unresolved relationships prevent the soul from letting go.

6. Grief and Invitation from the Living

Intense unprocessed grief or yearning from loved ones can pull the soul back or keep it earthbound (e.g., "I can't let you go").

7. Lack of Spiritual Development

Atheistic or purely materialistic worldviews and orientations, and a lack of spiritual development in life, can leave the soul disoriented after death.

8. Distorted Spiritual Beliefs

Beliefs in hell, punishment, or mistrust of the Light can cause a soul to resist transition. The belief system and state of consciousness at the moment of death play a significant role in shaping the afterlife experience and can keep a spirit earthbound.

One example is a growing popular narrative in fringe conspiracy circles claiming that "reincarnation is a trap to recycle souls" or the "tunnel of light is a trap."

Ironically, these ideas are often seeded by hostile, adverse forces that seek to prevent souls from reaching the Light and instead keep them trapped in the Earth realm.

I've written about it here: "The Reincarnation Soul-Recycling Matrix Trap – Is Earth A Soul-Entrapment Prison?"

Entering the tunnel of light is essential for the soul to move forward, avoid becoming earthbound, remain protected from adversarial spirits, and not be pulled into the 8th Sphere, as described by Steiner.

Mayer's insights and experiences of working with the deceased are also confirmed by other practitioners and supesensible healers, who have worked with the dead for many decades, such as Dr. William Baldwin, Dr. Edith Fiore, Iris Paxino, and others.

Helping the Dead

Mayer stresses that anyone can help the dead, even without clairvoyant abilities. Simple actions such as inwardly connecting with the deceased, offering heartfelt prayers, or calling upon divine beings can open a healing pathway.

The Lord's Prayer, in particular, can serve as a bridge between the living and the dead. The key is heart-centered sincerity, humility, and a willingness to serve, without any fear, attachment, or effort to control.

Variation of the Effect of the COVID Vaccine

Mayer emphasizes that not everyone is affected in the same way. The degree of spiritual disruption depends on several factors:

- The intention behind taking the vaccine (whether from fear, coercion, or trust)
- The strength of the individual's inner life and spiritual maturity
- The consciousness of the medical practitioner administering the injection

- The person's constitutional vitality and karmic predisposition

He cautions against black-and-white thinking. Some people are able to transmute the effects through inner work. Others may experience minimal disruption. What matters most is the degree of inner alignment with spiritual truth and soul embodiment.

Atlantean Karma and the Return of Black Magic

"Atlantis has not come to an end; almost everyone, ourselves included, carries the experiences of their Atlantean incarnations in the depths of their souls."

– Thomas Mayer

Everything we experience now during this Time of Transition is also related to "Karma coming to fruition" on a collective and individual level.

Thomas Mayer also explores the Karmic background relating to the separation of body and spirit, the emergence of materialism, allopathic medicine, the vaccine, and the abuse of power and technology, going back to ancient Egypt and Atlantis.

At the end of those epochs, certain mystery schools fell into black magic inspired by soratic beings and rejected Divine guidance.

The disincarnate priests of the dark temples did not disappear. They have continued working through history via inquisitions, totalitarian regimes, and now, the COVID vaccines and the religion of Transhumanism.

"I also notice an increasing parallel to the sinking of Atlantis, the dynamic of the black magic scientists and priests of the time, the leaders of the decadent Atlantis, and their inspirers.

These can certainly also be found today, particularly in transhumanism. Right down to individuals.

And I have become aware that many of the academics who are getting vaccinated and are experiencing the COVID pandemic completely uncritically were among those fallen Atlantean scientists and leaders.”

These beings seek to hijack humanity’s evolution by severing our connection to spirit and replacing it with control systems based on fear, technology, and materialism.

Their influence is visible in corporate egregores, especially in the pharmaceutical industry, which Mayer perceives as surrounded by dense and hostile soratic energetic fields.

Facing the Spiritual Battle with Faith and Courage

Mayer encourages not to react with fear, but to face this spiritual battle with courage and an open heart.

We cannot force others to awaken or rescue those who have taken a different path.

Free Will must be respected.

You can only help those who ask for it and are open to it.

Much of it remains unknown and is in the hands of the Divine. No one can fully see through the eyes of the Divine. That’s why we need faith and trust, rooted in inner work and spiritual aspiration

We must actively engage the spiritual will of our higher nature and face the truth with a warrior’s spirit, because many forces are working to pull us away from Truth and from our true selves.

The future is not set in stone.

We are in for a wild ride, and what we’ve seen so far is only the beginning. The past few years were just the opening act. Don’t let fear or despair take over. That is how these forces gain access.

But do not underestimate what is at stake either. We have work to do. This is a battle for the soul, literally.

And yet, it is also a magnificent opportunity for real awakening. This is the time to rise and serve the Divine as the spiritual warrior you are.

See it as an opportunity for a real spiritual soul-based Awakening beyond “information-based intellectual awareness,” which many truth seekers mistake for an “awakening.”

The vaccine, in Mayer’s view, is a symptom of a deeper spiritual war. It represents the culmination of materialism and the birth of a new religion based on transhumanist ideals.

But no matter how deep the darkness may go, healing is always available and possible.

The choice, ultimately, remains with each individual.

All there is are soul lessons.

“The situation is by no means hopeless. Time and again, I have experienced that high spiritual beings looked upon the COVID crisis and the vaccinations with calm and confidence.

It is a test from which much good can come in the long run, even if it seems overwhelming for most people today.

It is possible to grow spiritually through the COVID vaccinations if you take on this challenge actively.

This applies equally to the unvaccinated and to the vaccinated.”

- Thomas Mayer

This speaks to me on so many levels. It takes a crisis—a spiritual crossroads such as the one we’re currently facing—to see what we and others are truly made of.

I’m so grateful for the angels and protectors who have swept me up out of harm’s way over and over and pray that I can give back as much as I have received.

i was part of the schism in the wellness community. what was even more profound and amazing for those of us who are health practitioners, herbalists and acupuncturists, is that we all spent a year collaborating and working together, on the ground, treating covid everyday without the "cure".

in the herbal community (in the usa) we are small self policing unlicensed body and we spent a year in open and successful active collaboration, sharing protocols and case studies. this was an epic time of strengthening our little community, based in the foundational aspects of our practice, which is based on the observation of actual cases for the last 6000 or so years and then using traditional classifications and frameworks to explain the hows and whys of success or failure, both being of equal value.

covid was symptomatically tricky, people were all over the place, there was not really one set of symptoms however it became clear quite soon, (due to the fantastic open approach of the hive mind sharing on the internet), that the main culprit of death was when the body got stuck in an inflammatory response. luckily we have herbs for this, old school biters being especially useful and with the addition of the now well known supplements we soon were getting a real handle on how to successfully treat covid over and over again.

as you so succinctly say in your essay, traditional healers are trained and drilled into meeting each client where they are, not using shame as a healing response and supporting and nourishing the mind body spirit using energy and herbs and needles to help the body align into balance. The last thing you want to do is leave a person suffering to suffer alone and isolated as the stress of this is enough to make the difference between life and death. That this was the recommended health care advice was a huge red flag.

and although herbalists run the full gamete from extremely orthodox scientific types with various degrees to complete woo woo diviners i have yet to meet a practicing herbalist who denies the
