126. Later renamed by its head Edward J. Ruppelt the "Dark Ages."
- introduced CIRVIS (Communication Instructions for Reporting Vital Intelligence Sightings

127. Feb 17, 1954 AForce officials met with representatives of major airlines were requested to radio sighting reports directly to Military Air Transport Service in Washington or to the nearest air force base. Despite a petition signed by 500 pilots the new regulations went into effect. (not to discuss publically or media)
- military pilots were required to file their sightings under a Joint Army-Navy-Air Force Publication 146. which stated pilots had to keep their sighting secret under penalty of contained in Communications Act of 1934 and the espionage laws. Air Force Regulation (AFR) 200-2 limited destribution of UFO reports to the three military

127 intelligence groups. (146 & 200-2) according to Keyhoe UFO secrecy policy high placed group non "silence group"
- in March 52 Grudge becomes "the Aerial Phenomena Group"
- another key Ruppelt changes term "flying saucer" to UFO

(1952) numerous flying saucer are seen over Washington many of them tracked on Andrew Air Base and Washington Airport radar F-94 are scrambled to shoot down the intruders. The Air Force holds the biggest news conference since WW II (Maj Gen John A Samford)

Contactees

- immediately labels the person a looney tune
- Smith stated it was one of the most fruitful avenues of research.
- Why are these two views so divergent. Is there a middle road.

AFOSI Regulation 124-88 states

A major concern in leak cases is to avoid lending credence to the compromised material... In the absence of official confirmation, publicized material can be damaged but must still be classed as speculation. Sometimes, the very existance of an official investigation provides confirmation. The problem may be a determining factor in deciding whether an investigation should be undertaken.
