A.G. Dugin

Dear Alexander Gelevich!

It is with deep sorrow that I received the news of the tragic death of your daughter.

Daria Alexandrovna was known in Russia and abroad as an active public figure, a bright journalist, and a talented scientific researcher. Being the successor of your work, she, despite her young age, managed to achieve significant success in her chosen field, earn the gratitude and respect of her colleagues.

In the days of difficult trials associated with the loss of loved ones and loved ones, for us, the words of the Holy Scripture sound like a consolation: "if we live, we live for the Lord; if we die, we die to the Lord; therefore, whether we live or die, it is always the Lord's" (Rom. 14:8).

May the merciful Lord of Heaven and Earth rest the soul of His newly-departed servant Daria in the villages of the righteous and create eternal memory for her.

With sincere condolences

+KIRILL, PATRIARCH OF MOSCOW AND ALL RUSSIA
