

FSB solves Dugina's murder

© Sergey Bobylev/TASS

The FSB found that "the crime was prepared and committed by the Ukrainian special services," and its perpetrator is a citizen of Ukraine Natalia Vovk, who fled to Estonia after the murder

MOSCOW, 22 August. /TASS/. The murder of journalist Daria Dugina has been solved, it was prepared by the Ukrainian special services, the performer is a citizen of Ukraine Natalia Vovk, who disappeared after the crime in Estonia. This was reported to TASS on Monday at the Center for Public Relations of the FSB of Russia.

Read also

What is known about the death of the daughter of Alexander Dugin

"As a result of a complex of urgent operational-search measures, the Federal Security Service has solved the murder of Russian journalist Darya Dugina, born in 1992," the FSB stressed. The special service established that "the crime was prepared and committed by the Ukrainian special services," and its perpetrator is a citizen of Ukraine Vovk Natalya Pavlovna, born in 1979. She arrived in Russia on July 23, 2022, together with her daughter Shaban Sofia Mikhailovna, born in 2010. "On the day of the murder, Vovk and Shaban were at the Tradition literary and music festival, where Dugina was present as an honored guest. region to Estonia," the FSB said. The secret service clarified that in order to organize the murder of Dugina and obtain information about her lifestyle, Vovk and her daughter rented an apartment in Moscow in the house where the deceased lived. The criminals used a Mini Cooper car to monitor the journalist. At the same time, when entering Russia, the numbers of the Donetsk People's Republic were used - E982XH DPR, in Moscow - Kazakhstani numbers 172AJD02, and when leaving - Ukrainian AH7771IP. "The materials of the investigation have been transferred to the Investigative Committee," the FSB added. Later, law enforcement agencies reported that Natalya Vovk would be put on the wanted list with the aim of extraditing Russia.

Earlier, opposition leader Ilya Ponomarev on the air of the YouTube channel "Morning of February" said that the so-called National Republican Army could be behind the murder of Daria Dugina. At the same time, Ponomarev himself called for joining the NRA and providing support to this organization.