Statement by the official representative of the Russian Ministry of Defense

As a result of a deliberate missile attack on July 29 from the American Hymars multiple launch rocket system on a pre-trial detention center near the village of Yelenovka, the Kyiv regime killed and maimed most of the 193 Ukrainian prisoners of war who were there.

According to data updated on the morning of July 30, 50 Ukrainians were killed as a result of the missile attack. The remains of 48 Ukrainian prisoners of war were found and removed from under the rubble of the isolation ward. Two more Ukrainian prisoners of war died from severe wounds on the way, while being transported to a medical facility.

73 Ukrainian prisoners of war were delivered to medical institutions with severe wounds. All of them received the necessary medical care.

Surname lists of those killed and wounded as a result of the Kiev regime's missile attack on Ukrainian prisoners of war are published on the official information resources of the Russian Ministry of Defense.

All political, criminal and moral responsibility for the bloody massacre against Ukrainians is borne personally by Zelensky, his criminal regime and Washington supporting them.
